

THE TORONTO STAR

Manhattan hotels offer perks in New York

Kathryn
Folliott

Triumph Hotels' six Manhattan hotels are each offering a Key to New York City package that comes with an only-in-NYC excursion, valued at $100 (all prices U.S.), when booked as part of a minimum three-night stay. At the Hotel Belleclaire on the Upper West Side, the perk is a Central Park picnic with food from Zabar's. In the theatre district, the Washington Jefferson has two tickets for the City Stage Door Tour at Radio City Music Hall and a $50 dinner voucher. And a stay at the Hotel Chandler comes with VIP passes to the Empire State Building. Travel must be completed by June 30 with some black-out dates. See triumphhotels.com. Also in New York, the Warwick New York Hotel's Family Vacation package comes with accommodation for up to two adults and two kids under 12 in a one-bedroom suite plus breakfast, late checkout and tickets to the Top of the Rock Observation Deck at Rockefeller Center. See warwickhotels.com (promo code PROM3).

Hotel Belleclaire is offering a picnic in Central Park with a three-night stay, as part of the Key to New York City promotion.